Date: 20th June - 27th June 2020

Resource Person: Shikha Singh, Assistant Professor.

Participants: 25

Objective: This course introduces students (Attendees) to the basics of the French Language. It focuses on conversational French and the everyday use of the language.

Mode: WebEx meeting.

Content: Mehr Chand Mahajan DAV College for women, Chandigarh arranged an eight day “French Speaking Workshop”. This intensive course was designed for the true beginners aiming at enabling the candidates to communicate in a variety of everyday situations, working on their grammar and vocabulary altogether. The resource person of the course was Shikha Singh, Assistant Professor of the college itself. Within few minutes the registrations were filled with eighty-six candidates which forced authorities to disable the further registrations.

The premier of the workshop began with the participants learning how to present themselves in the language and the salutations with a small introduction about the French language. The second day comprised learning French figures, weekdays and months along with the knowledge about French phonetics. Though emphasis was made on communicating in French, the attendees were taught how to form French conjugations on the third day followed by teaching the formation of sentences on the fourth and fifth day. Apart from the knowledge about the language, the participants got the chance to get acquainted with the French culture by knowing about French cities, gastronomy, festivals etc. On the sixth day the participants were able to present a piece of writing in French. The workshop wrapped-up with the highlighting of the vocabulary and viva voce.
