Celebrating 38th National Youth Day that marks the birth anniversary of Swami

Vivekananda, the Department of Philosophy in collaboration with the college NSS units and Young Communicators Club, organised an Indian Council of Philosophical Research sponsored Periodic Lecture on the topic 'A Friend Request from Vivekananda'. The resource person for the lecture was Mr. Sudhir Baweja, Coordinator, Department of Philosophy and Vivekananda Studies, USOL, Panjab University. Inaugurating the lecture, the college Principal Dr. Nisha Bhargava hailed Swami Vivekananda as a major force behind reform movements, highlighting his efforts to spread the message of eternal Vedanta philosophy and to seek foreign assistance and technical knowledge for India's development. Paying tribute to this distinguished son of Mother India, Dr. Bhargava added that Swami Vivekananda's philosophy is life transforming and his life journey is so inspiring that students can learn many valuable lessons from him. In his engrossing lecture, Mr. Sudhir Baweja said that if you want to be a person with muscles of iron and nerves of steel, then Swami Vivekananda's friend request awaits you. He impressed upon the youth to befriend Vivekananda through reading of his writings and emulating his lessons in one's life. Referring to Vivekananda as the eternal youth icon, Mr. Baweja shared Swamiji's toolkit that can transform anyone into a beautiful person and help him/her achieve true success in life. He elaborated on Swamiji's toolkit for success that includes not yielding to weaknesses, self-confidence and conviction in the power of goodness, absence of jealousy and suspicion, helping those who are trying to do good, positivity, character, focus, and so on. The lecture ended with an interactive session wherein the participants put forth their queries to the expert.

The Department organised an Indian Council of Philosophical Research (ICPR) online periodic lecture titled 'Understanding Virtues and Virtuous Life: A Philosophical Deliberation' by Dr. Shivani Sharma, Chairperson, Department of Philosophy, Panjab University. The lecture aimed to explore the concept of virtue and its different kinds in the history of ideas by referring to Indian and Greek traditions, and also to acquaint the students to the paradigm that is available across the cultures. Dr. Shivani asserted that Indian philosophical tradition is rich enough in suggesting as to how to make life meaningful and eventful and similar is the case with Greek tradition too. In her engrossing lecture, Dr. Shivani shed light on human privilege to create a meaningful life, importance of living meaningfully, the role of the concept of Purushartha and Ashram vyavastha in realisation of virtues, difference between Shreyas and Preyas as propounded by the Vedas and the means to adopt virtuous life style.

The college Principal Dr. Nisha Bhargava lauded these endeavours of the Philosophy Department to stimulate the philosophical thinking of the students, commenced by sharing the literal meaning of virtues and virtuous life. Quoting great philosophers like Socrates, Aristotle and Kant, Dr. Bhargava shared their interpretations on leading a virtuous life, and said that self-reflection is a prerequisite for a virtuous life. The lecture witnessed enthusiastic participation of the students.

The Department organised an Indian Council of Philosophical Research (ICPR) online periodic lecture titled 'Our Place in Space'. The resource person for the lecture was Dr Smriti Mahajan, SERB Research Scientist at IISER, Mohali(Punjab). Dr. Smriti gave a generic overview of the scales in the universe in the context of galaxies and the large-scale structures which they form, trying to formulate an address for mankind in the larger Universe. The expert put the galaxies- our own Milkyway and the ones in our neighbourhood into perspective, discussing some milestone discoveries and recent developments. the lecture witnessed enthusiastic participation of the students. The college Principal Dr. Nisha Bhargava lauded these endeavours of the Philosophy Department.
