UNNAT BHARAT ABHIYAN (UBA)

The UBA Cell of Mehr Chand Mahajan DAV College for Women, Sector 36, Chandigarh, falling under the flagship program of Govt. of India, covers a cluster of five villages around the periphery of Chandigarh. The villages in the ambit are Attawa, Badheri, Buterla, Kajheri and Maloya. Various activities have been undertaken in these villages in the past one year, beginning with Household Survey in each village, followed by a bevy of developmental initiatives like Lectures on Health & Hygiene, Community Meetings with the Village Councillors, Cleanliness Drives and Workshops, Rallies, Demonstration of Skill related Opportunities. An environment sensitizing campaign viz. "Plastic Free Campaign", spanning over several weeks, was also conducted in all the villages, wherein along with the dissemination of the information regarding the disastrous effect of plastic; suggestions and practical demonstration of Cloth bags & Waste Disposal was given to the residents of the village. All these activities were taken in enthusiastically by the villagers, and follow-up of the activities is also ensured. The UBA Cell of the College is looking forward to more such collaborations as would take the villages, a step forward in the areas of upliftment.

Sustainable Waste Management Practices

College has implemented various sustainable waste management approaches:

- Integrated Biogas and composting Units,
- Vermicomposting,
- Mushroom Cultivation.
- Sewage Treatment Plant of 50,000ltr/day capacity has been installed to strengthen the Zero waste policy of the college on waste management.
