Aim of NCC

The 'Aims' of the NCC laid out in 1988 have stood the test of time and continue to meet the requirements expected of it in the current socio-economic scenario of the country.

- To create a human resource of organized, trained and motivated youth, to provide leadership in all walks of life and be always available for the service of the nation.
- To provide a suitable environment to motivate the youth to take up a career in the Armed Forces.
- To develop character, comradeship, discipline, leadership, secular outlook, spirit of adventure, and ideals of selfless service amongst the youth of the country.

Motto of NCC

The need for having motto for the Corps was discussed in the 11th Central Advisory Committee (CAC) meeting held on 11 Aug 1978. The mottos suggested were "Duty and Discipline"; "Duty, Unity and Discipline"; "Duty and Unity"; "Unity and Discipline". The final decision for selection of "Unity and Discipline" as motto for the NCC was taken in the 12th CAC meeting held on 12 October, 1980.

The Annual Training Camp was organized for the second and third year cadets of the naval wing. Given the plethora of activities in the camp, the cadets of MCM DAV left no area untouched with their astounding feats. Be it sports competitions, cultural activities or studies, the cadets swept most of the major awards in all categories.

A cleanliness drive was organized by the cadets in the college. Promoting the idea of the 'Swachh Bharat Campaign' the drive aimed at getting the campus rid of unnecessary junk and garbage to promote cleanliness, spreading awareness about the cause and influencing others to take recourse to the same path.

The cadets have also been regular participants in yachting and boat pulling activities.

With the hard work of our team, MCMDAV has had major accomplishments in NCC and with further determination, we aspire to keep this legacy going.
