Re-DVV Clarification - 1.2.1

- 1.2.1 Percentage of Programmes in which Choice Based Credit System (CBCS)/ elective course system has been implemented
- 1.2.1.1. Number of Programmes in which CBCS / Elective course system implemented.

Response – List of Elective Courses/Subjects offered by the College.

| S.No. | Programmes                | Courses/Subjects                               |
|-------|---------------------------|--|
| 1.    | B.A with Elective         | English  |
|       | Subjects offered in       | Hindi  |
|       |                           | Punjabi  |
|       |                           | Economics                                      |
|       |                           | Fine Arts                                      |
|       |                           | History  |
|       |                           | Mathematics                                    |
|       |                           | Sociology                                      |
|       |                           | Public Administration                          |
|       |                           | Home Science                                   |
|       |                           | Philosophy                                     |
|       |                           | Political Science                              |
|       |                           | Sanskrit                                       |
|       |                           | Physical Education,                            |
|       |                           | Psychology                                     |
|       |                           | Music (Vocal)                                  |
|       |                           | Music (Instrumental)                           |
|       |                           | Police Administration,                         |
|       |                           | Functional English,                            |
|       |                           | Office Management & Secretarial                |
|       | 1 - 45                    | Practice                                       |
| 2.    | B.Sc with Elective        | Chemistry                                      |
|       | Subjects offered in       | Botany   |
|       |                           | Zoology  |
|       |                           | Physics  |
|       |                           | Mathematics                                    |
|       |                           | Computer Application                           |
| 3.    | B. A. Honours with        | English  |
|       | elective subjects offered | Hindi  |
|       | in                        | Punjabi  |
|       |                           | History,                                       |
|       |                           | Political Science                              |
|       |                           | Psychology                                     |
|       |                           | Sociology                                      |
|       | D A II                    | Public Administration                          |
| 4.    | B. A, Honours in          | Econometrics  Economics of Manager and Doubing |
| _     | Economics                 | Economics of Money and Banking                 |
| 5.    | B. Com Hounors with       | Accounting                                     |
|       | Elective Subjects in      | Management Studies                             |
|       | DC II .                   | Economics                                      |
| 6.    | B.Sc Honours in           | Physics  |
|       | MA-English (Semester      |  |
|       | III) with choice between  | Indian Writing in English                      |
|       | Elective Subjects of      |  |

Vibra Sharing Niser

|     | MA-English (Semester    | Cultural Studies               |
|-----|-------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 7.  | IV) with choice between | Indian Writing in Translation  |
|     | Elective Subjects of    |                                |
| 8.  | MA-Economics            | Economics of Industry-I        |
|     | (Semester III) with     | Econometrics-I                 |
|     | choice among Elective   | Economics of Population        |
|     | Subjects of             |                                |
|     | MA-Economics            | Economics of Industry-II       |
|     | (Semester IV) with      | Econometrics-II                |
|     | choice among Elective   | Economics of Money and Banking |
|     | Subjects of             |                                |
| 9.  | MA-Psychology           | Organizational Psychology-I    |
|     | (Semester-III) with     | Child Psychopathology-II       |
|     | choice among Elective   | Clinical Disorders             |
|     | Subjects of             | Clinical Psychology            |
|     | MA-Psychology           | Organizational Psychology-II   |
|     | (Semester-IV) with      | Child Psychopathology-II       |
|     | choice among Elective   | Clinical Psychology            |
|     | Subjects of             | Applied Counselling            |
| 10. | M.ScMathematics         | Computational Techniques-I     |
|     | (Semester-III) with     | Fluid Mechanics-I              |
|     | choice among Elective   |                                |
|     | Subjects of             |                                |
|     | M.ScMathematics         | Computational Techniques-II,   |
|     | (Semester-IV) with      | Fluid Mechanics-II             |
|     | choice among Elective   |                                |
|     | Subjects of             |                                |

Masma

alsur