Activity 2 : One-day online workshop on "Gender Responsive Approach to Climate Change"

Organising Committee: Women Development Cell of the College in collaboration with The Foreign Students' Cell

Resource Person: Prof. Namita Gupta from the Department of Human Rights, Panjab University, Chandigarh

Dates: 10th November 2022

Number of Participants: 85

The Foreign Students' Cell and Women Development Cell of Mehr Chand Mahajan DAV College for women organized a one-day online workshop on "Gender Responsive Approach to Climate Change" on 10th November 2022. The eminent resource person, Prof. Namita Gupta from the Department of Human Rights, Panjab University, Chandigarh, lent an exhaustive narrative to the contemporary cum sensitive issue of women being the lead victims of the holocaust of climate changes and natural disasters. She said that the burgeoning statistics have been a precursor to the desired emergence of various environmental movements of India like Bishnoi movement, Chipko Movement, Aapiko movement, Silent valley movement and Narmada Bachao Andolan, to name a few. Prof. Namita Gupta corroborated her talk with research-based constructs in the domains of agriculture, plantation, mining, household chores, migration, and politics etc., all bearing testimony to the genderbased hiatus skewed towards women in society. She alluded to the famous environment sustainability books like 'Silent Spring' and highlighted the categoric significance of equal opportunities to cast a strong influence in the sphere of Land and Property Governance, and the overall polity of the country and the world at large. Prof. Namita Gupta, being a hard-core positivist, reinforced the role of women in the mainstream of livelihood crusades backed by their vehement decision-making powers. The session exuded an overwhelming response from over eighty students who participated in the event with rapt attention. The students raised queries which were promptly addressed by Prof. Namita Gupta in both letter and content, with examples from countries like Switzerland. Around 85 participants were part of this online workshop.

Activity 3: Pad Collection Drive: "Donate a Pad"

Women Development Cell, Mehr Chand Mahajan DAV College for Women, Chandigarh conducted a drive on Sanitary pads collection "Donate a Pad" for the underprivileged women to mark International Women's Day Celebrations,2023. This activity was held on 20th and 21st February,2023 in the college campus near bank area of college.

Date: 20th & 21st February, 2023

No. Of Students: 3 students & 3 Teachers

Objective

To increase awareness among females on Menstrual Hygiene. Also to increase access to and use of high quality sanitary napkins. To ensure safe disposal of Sanitary Napkins in an environmentally friendly manner.

Activity 4: Pad Distribution Drive:

The economic crisis that has arisen due to COVID-19 has created challenges for girls in the slums. Lack of access to sanitary pads has led to health and hygiene problems like UTI's and endometritis that not only cause daily discomfort but can also lead to cervical cancer, fibroids, and cysts that are often left unattended. The psychological impact of not being able to function during their period cycle not only damages the mental health of girls but impedes on their education.

Women Development Cell, Mehr Chand Mahajan DAV College for Women, Chandigarh took an initiative to conducted a drive on "Sanitary Pads Distribution" for the underprivileged women of Attawa village, Sec-42, Chandigarh and slum area of sector 25, Chandigarh to mark International Women's Day Celebrations on 8th March,2023. This activity was in continuation with the drive conducted on "Pad Collection for Donation" held on 20th and 21st February, 2023.

Poor women struggle to get a clean piece of cloth to manage their period every month. There is a lack of awareness about menstrual health and hygiene. Living in a culture of shame and silence, they end up using poor substitutes like rags and ash, or worse they use NOTHING.

Students also performed a play and interacted with the underprivileged women on the theme: "Menstrual Hygiene and its importance". The students participated enthusiastically to make this drive a success.

Date: 28th February, 2023 No. Of Participants: 18 students & 3 Teachers

Activity 5: A skit to mark International Womens' Day

Women Development Cell of the college staged a thought-provoking skit titled "Awareness of Women Rights on safety". The skit highlighted various issues like child marriage, gender discrimination, sexual harassment, domestic violence etc and drew thunderous applause as it closed with the motivating lines ' bekhauf azaad hai rehna tujhe' summoning the women to fearlessly break all the shackles that hold them back.

Date: 11th March, 2023

No. Of Participants: 16

Objective: To make the students aware of the various issues like child marriage, gender discrimination, sexual harassment, domestic violence etc.

MCM celebrates the indefatigable women power with 'Veerangana'

THE AMAN SANDESH TIMES

Chandigarh: Saluting the inimitable essence of womanhood, Mehr Chand Mahajan DAV College for Women, under the aegis of Department of Education. Chandigarh Higher Administration and in collaboration with Yuvsatta, organised 'Veerangana: The Indefatigable Women Power' to mark the celebration of International Women's Day. Illustrious alumna of the college Prof. Nishtha Jaswal, Vice Chancellor, Himachal Pradesh National Law University, Shimla, graced the event as the Chief Guest. Ms.Somya Thakur, Ms. Wheelchair India 2022 was the Special Guest on this occasion. Mr. Deepak Dhiman, Channel Head (Punjab, Himachal, Haryana, Chandigarh), Zee Media Corp. Ltd. and Mr. Pramod Sharma, Founder, Yuvsatta NGO were also present on this occasion as the collaborating partners. Inaugurating the event, Principal Dr. Nisha Bhargava drew attention to the fact that women enjoyed position of reverence in the Indian society during the ancient times but years of British rule destroyed the indigenous social fabric, leading to assigning of secondary role to women. She exhorted the women to recognise their inherent power and asserted that this imbalance can be reversed by bringing about change in the mindsets of the people. In her energising address,

Prof. Nishtha Jaswal said that a single day dedicated to women is not enough as each day of the year is a celebration of womanhood for the way she touches different lives with her quintessential compassion, love and care. Pointing out the way Shiva and Shakti are one, Prof. Jaswal said that men and women are one and they should complement each other instead of competing with each other. Her rendition of a self composed poem on women left the audience spellbound. Mr. Deepak Dhiman said that women are in no way inferior to anyone and they themselves need to believe in their innate abilities. and empower themselves through knowledge. Ms. Somya spoke about the importance of small steps in making women empowered and said that education holds the key to empowerment and liberation.

The event was a befitting tribute to the indomitable spirit of womanhood as a total of 54 underprivileged girl students with exceptional performance in the field of sports/academics/ community outreach/creative arts/ music from across the tricity were felicitated with cash prizes. A booklet titled 'Veerangana' comprising the accomplishments of these 54 students was released in this occasion. The audience's emotions reached a crescendo as the faculty and students of the college's Music Department rendered a stimulating song based on Principal Dr. Nisha Bhargava's poem 'Nari Shakti' which echoes the theme of Veerangana and calls upon women folk to realise their innate strength. A thought-provoking skit by the Women Development Cell of the college highlighted various issues like child marriage, gender discrimination, sexual harrasment, domestic violence, etc. and drew a thunderous applause as it closed with the motivating lines 'bekhauf, azaad hai rehna tujhe'summoning the women to fearlessly break all the shackles that hold them back. A lecture on 'Contribution of Women in Framing Constitution' by Dr. Manisha Pandey Tiwari, Assistant Professor of History at the college, enlightened the audience about illustrious women like Hansa Mehta, Sarojini Naidu, Leela Roy, Vijay Laxmi Pandit, Sucheta Kriplani and many more who played an instrumental role in laying the foundation of a strong India. Displaying their entrepreneurial spirit, the young student entrepreneurs of the college put up different stalls of their products. Amazing cultural performances enthralled the audience.

Hair Styling: Mr. Rajat from Tress Lounge, Sec-8, chandigarh

Self Grooming: Ms. Sarvjit & Ms. Priyanka from Mehr Chand Mahajan DAV College for Women, Sec-36A, Chandigarh

Dates: 28th February-3rd March, 2023 Venue: Cosmetology Department No. Of Participants: 65

Objective

• Nail art is a creative way to paint, decorate, enhance, and embellish nails. It is a type of artwork that can be done on fingernails and toenails, usually after manicures or pedicures. One way of knowing oneself is to get in touch with one's own creativity.

With social norms imposing a money earning oriented trend on young minds, creative thinking is being squished out. Exploring the various design techniques of nail art and décor provides a chance to dive into the creative folds of one's mind and learn this intricate art of amplifying beauty.

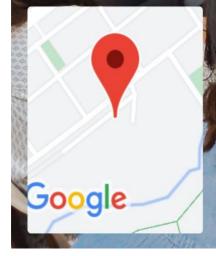

- To provide the students with the opportunity to develop their skills in cutting, styling and coloring hair of different types and lengths.
- To provide thorough knowledge in hair care and treatment products and their chemical and aesthetic properties.
- To provide the participants, in depth knowledge of personal care, which will help them, develop a personality and confidently express themselves in front of guests.
