National Workshop organised

THE AMAN SANDESH TIMES

Chandigarh: The Foreign Students' Cell and Department of Sociology of Mehr Chand Mahajan DAV College for Women, Sector 36-A, Chandigarh, in collaboration with knowledge partner Government Degree College, Chamba, Himachal Pradesh organised an online national workshop on 'Contemporary Gender issues in India: Some Reflections'. The resource person of the workshop was Dr. Vishav Raksha, Head Department of Sociology and Director of Women's Studies, University of Jammu. She talked about the facilities and special benefits available to women. She also highlighted the problems faced by safai karamcharis. She talked about the high dropout rate among girls in schools due to the lack of basic facilities for them in educational institutions. The principal of the college, Dr. Nisha Bhargava, applauded the efforts of the Foreign Students' Cell in arranging the workshop and added that the progress of any nation remains incomplete unless gender disparities are reduced. She also emphasised the fact that women themselves can play a key role in resolving gender issues and in empowering women.
