The landscaping committee is constantly working in the direction of creating a nature friendly and pleasant environment for the staff and students. The Landscaping committee of the college has done the beautification of various corners of college areas using creativity while maintaining the connection with the nature. In this direction landscaping was done in different areas of college such in front of lawn outside Principal Office and in front of Golden Jubilee Hall using variety of flowers, bamboos and various colourful painted stones. A unique initiative was taken by the medium of fountain decoration in Rishi Vatika of the college to spread the knowledge to connect with our Vedas. All the areas such as hostel lawns, college front lawns, science and arts block were well maintained by making beautiful patterns using bricks and stones. The growth and formation of the plants were monitored regularly by Malis and regular cutting and pruning was done. To maintain swachhta in the college and to observe the World Environment Day on 5th June the best lawn competition was organized to improve and beautify the lawns of the college to provide a pleasant environment to the students and staff members. The lawns were visited and inspected by Dr.Nisha Bhargava along with the Co-conveners of the competition. The best lawn prizes were declared for the best lawns of college and hostels. Among college category the first prize for best lawn was given to front lawn of the college, second Prize was given to science lawn of the college and third Prize was given to entrance of Golden Jubilee Hall. Under Hostel category the first prize for best lawn was given to AB Hostel Block lawn and second prize was given to EF Hostel Block lawn. The Principal also appreciated the efforts of malis in making the lawns beautiful and green.
